Papež Frančišek-- Dear brothers and sisters who are ill or who care for the suffering, in this Jubilee you play an especially important part. Your journey together is a sign for everyone: "a hymn to human dignity, a song of hope". Its strains are heard far beyond the rooms and beds of health facilities and serve to elicit in charity "the choral participation of society as a whole" in a harmony that is at times difficult to achieve, but for that very reason is so comforting and powerful, capable of bringing light and warmth wherever they are most needed. The whole Church thanks you for this! -- I bless you, along with your families and loved ones, and I ask you, please, not to forget to pray for me! Pope Francis

Nedelja, 9. februar: – Apostol Pavel nas nagovarja, naj sprejemamo oznanilo

Kristusa, ki je večna Božja beseda. Jezus je obljubil, da bo z nami vse dni. Na to resnico morda pozabimo, ker Jezusa ne vidimo, kot so ga videli učenci in mnogi, ki so prihajali k njemu. Jezus je med nami po svoji besedi in milosti. Na poseben način je med nami med daritvijo svete maše, ko se daruje Bogu Očetu in se daje nam v duhovno hrano. Z milostjo Jezus pomaga, da bi slišali njegov glas, njegovo vabilo in šli, hodili za njim.

Jezus je poklical nekatere, da so postali učenci, apostoli. Rekel jim je da bodo ribiči, pastirji. Z oznanjevanjem evangelija in podeljevanjem milosti zakramentov bodo skrbeli za verujoče, podobno kot skrbi pastir za čredo; vodili bodo ljudi k Bogu, postali bodo ribiči, ker bodo usmerjali ljudi na pot vere.

The crowd gathers closely around Jesus, urged by the desire to "hear the Word of God"; this is the answer to the constant invitation which we find throughout the Scriptures: "Hear, O Israel!" "If only my people would hear me!". It is as if the crowd were saying: "Yes, I will hear what God proclaims, the Lord". But the kind of hearing that is mentioned and suggested is complete, not superficial; it is alive and life-giving, not dead; it is the hearing of faith, not of incredulity and of hardness of heart. It is the hearing that says: "Yes, Lord, at your word I will let down my nets." The call addressed to us just now is the call to faith, to trust in him and in every word that comes from his lips, certain that whatever he says will come true.
